

Eye Work To Your Satisfaction

The kind that we are doing daily—
The kind that relieves your eyes of severe strain, making life worth living.

REMARKABLE what a difference correctly-fitted and correctly-ground glasses make in the wearer's comfort. If you have not experienced that in those you are wearing, let us suggest that a change may be necessary; and if necessary, cannot be made too soon.

GLASSES are a poor thing to economize on, yet there is no need to throw away money on them—they may cost you only a trifle—depends entirely upon what your eyes need. We'll tell you your trouble and leave the rest to you.

REYNOLDS' ACTS.

Permitted Visitors To Mix With Lepers.

SWORN STATEMENT MADE BY WAITER

Superintendent of Molokai Colony in the Role of a Czar.

SOME weeks ago the Advertiser criticised Superintendent Reynolds of the leper settlement on Molokai for his negligence in allowing contact between lepers and clean persons. A flagrant case was cited on the evidence of Ambrose K. Hutchison of Molokai, where some sailors were allowed to mix with the Kalaupapa colonists. Reynolds, as usual, tried to crawl out of blame for the act of the seamen and denied Hutchison's statements. The latter now sends the sworn statement of William Maioho, the coffee shop waiter who had served the sailors, and also the information that Auditor Reynolds had vented his spite on Maioho and is running matters with a high hand in the leper colony.

Kalaupapa, Molokai, Feb. 19.

Editor Advertiser:—Allow me space to make a few more remarks as a final to the leper coffee shop incident. The incident is closed so far as the Board of Health is concerned. Mr. Reynolds having flatly denied knowing anything about it, and that body was satisfied with his explanation. Nevertheless the fact remains that the sailors were in the shop, coffee, bread and cakes furnished them and charged to the Board of Health account.

As it is now a question of veracity with us, I herewith send you the sworn statement of William Maioho, the coffee shop waiter and accountant, who served the sailors with coffee, etc., and who will bear me out in what I said in my first communication:—the public can judge for themselves which one of us lied. Since the incident happened the aforesaid waiter has been dismissed without any reason given by his employer and it is surmised that the coffee shop owner fears the displeasure of the boss if he keeps the man who is persona non grata to the powers that be in the employ and might lose the privilege of continuing his coffee shop business, which is only carried on at the pleasure of the superintendent. So not to offend and displease the all-powerful agent of the Board of Health and the boss of the settlement, who is absolute monarch of all he surveys within this realm, the fellow was given his ticket of leave.

Now, why should coffee shops be a privileged affair, not a licensed concern, and what is there to prevent the present owners of the coffee shops, of which there are three in the settlement, from taking out licenses?

AMBR0SE K. HUTCHISON.

The following is a literal translation of the sworn testimony of the waiter who claims to have waited upon the sailors:

"I, William Maioho, a leper residing at Kalaupapa, Molokai, am employed in the coffee shop owned by W. H. Bruns, now standing at Kalaupapa, in the capacity of waiter and clerk for recording the daily receipts and other duties relating to the coffee shop business. I hereby testify to what I saw and heard personally on the morning of January 17, 1901:

"Five sailors (two Japs and three natives) entered the shop in which I am employed, their clothes wet, and with them also entered Kale Kahalehili, a luna in the employ of the Board of Health, who ordered me to furnish the sailors with coffee and charge to the Board of Health, as is usual when lepers arrive from Honolulu. I complied with the order, seated the sailors around the table, then went and got five bowls of coffee and placed one before each of them; gave them bread, cake and pie. These things which I furnished these persons I recorded in the memorandum book of the coffee shop, charging the Board of Health for five bowls of coffee at 10 cents each bowl. Those people ate and drank what were given them. When they were through drinking coffee they entered the kitchen and sat around the stove to warm themselves and dry their damp clothes.

"While the sailors were there warming and drying themselves Kale Kahalehili re-entered the shop and asked the sailors to repair to the store and try on some suits. Kale Kahalehili then went out followed by the sailors. A little while later the sailors returned to the coffee shop with new dry clothes, and there they remained at ease, chatting with the lepers for an hour.

"In witness of the truth of the above statement, I hereby sign my name with my hand. WM. MAIOHO.

"Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of February, A. D. 1901. (L. S.) THOS. K. NATHANIEL, Notary Public, Second Judicial Circuit."

TO MARKET SIBERIAN WHEAT. German capitalists have planned the construction of a railroad through the Samoyede peninsula with the object of bringing the wheat of western Siberia quickly and economically into the world market. The wheat will be shipped by the Ob and its navigable tributaries to Obdorsk; then by rail to the sea coast, and thence by vessel to London or other ports.

PARIS HAS A TABLET RESTAURANT. A veritable "quick-luncheon," it is said, is to be had at a restaurant in Paris, where a dinner of several courses composed of concentrated food in the form of tablets can be consumed in a few minutes. The entire meal, indeed, can be carried about in the vest pocket or pocketbook.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT ON THE PALI ROAD

Four Japanese Thrown From Wagon and Sustain Severe Injuries.

Shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning a distressing runaway accident occurred on the Nuuanu valley road near Mark Robinson's place in which three Japanese women and one man were seriously injured. The unfortunate Orientals were conveyed to the city in the patrol wagon and thence to the Queen's hospital. One of the Japanese women was reported to be dangerously hurt and suffering evidently from an internal hemorrhage and the other two were badly bruised.

Eye witnesses of the accident state that the four were coming down the valley in an express wagon driven by the Japanese man. In front of Mark Robinson's place the horse shied at something in the road and the women became frightened. They had their parasols raised to protect themselves from the sun's rays and in their fright they flung them, wide open, into the road. The wind caught them and carried them about the animal, which then became thoroughly alarmed and bolted. The occupants attempted to alight from the wagon and in so doing jumped in such a manner that every one received some injuries.

One woman had her scalp nearly torn off and it was thought that the skull was fractured. Examination at the hospital proved this not to be the case. The one most dangerously hurt was bleeding internally and it is believed that she cannot live. The third woman was bruised about the face and body. The man had a few scratches and was more scared than hurt.

J. C. Quinn, the hackman, who was driving a party of tourists to the Pali, narrowly escaped having his surrey upset by the runaway. The horse came tearing down the hill and directly toward Quinn. He whipped up his horses and made for the open gates leading into the Davies premises, reaching there just in time to prevent accident.

SUPPORT FOR THE MIRROR.

It is not always an easy task to suspend a mirror in just the right light to facilitate the act of shaving, and perhaps the device which we present in the accompanying cut will recommend itself for this purpose. It is the invention of John E. Williamson, of Louisville, Ky., and is so made that it can be secured to the body and adjusted at just the required angle to show a good view of the face. When it is once in place the wearer can stand either in front of a window or facing an artificial light. In either case the reflected image will be perfectly plain. The support is preferred ably of wood, and is provided with straps, by which it is attached to the body. When the straps are once properly adjusted it requires but a second of time to slip them around the body, and the holder is then in position for use. It is not even necessary to stand when shaving, or to accommodate one's self to anything more uncomfortable than an ordinary chair. In whatever position the wearer places himself the glass will present the reflection of the face. The horizontal portion of the holder may be used as a support for the lather brush and sup, and a clamp is also provided to grip the sheet of paper with which the razor is wiped.

THE YEAST.

People often wonder why our bread is so much nearer to the real home-made kind and so much superior to that obtained elsewhere.

We don't mind telling you that the secret of our success is in the way we make our yeast.

Our recipe is an old-fashioned one which requires great care in making.
